Mrs. C. Stokette and Miss Mary C. Stokette have gone to Holland and Grand Rapids on a visit.—Muskegon Chronicle.

COSSIP OF THE HOTELS.

Mrs. Mark S. Brewer, of Pontiac, arrived at the Morton yesterday to look after her horse half in his political efforts.

"I've been all over Ionia county," said Geo. McBride yesterday, "and I don't believe there are ten republicans in the whole county who won't vote for Belknap. There aren't but two places in the county where a single particle of dissatisfaction has been expressed."

John Washington, a Saginaw lumberman, took dinner at Sweet's yesterday.

C. R. Lathrop, a Detroit attorney, was a guest at the Morton yesterday.

"I'm right between the Detroit fight and the fight here," said S. S. Oida, of Lansing, yesterday, "but from what I can see the republicans are going to be victorious in both places. I don't believe any true republican will halt the ticket. I'm just that kind of a republican that I would vote for any republican sooner than I would for any democrat."

E. K. Burke, of the Lansing Iron Works, was in the city yesterday. He was a guest at Sweet's.

E. Hutelings, of Fennville, the people's candidate for Congress, effected a very enjoyable alliance with a dinner at Sweet's yesterday.

AROUND THE MARKETS.

The prices quoted for the last few days generally remain in force, with the exception of poultry which has gone a little lower.

The commission houses are paying $1.25 to $1.75 a barrel for good fall stock. Choice snow apples are selling for $1 a bushel. Winter apples are a little higher than the fall stock and Baldwin and Steel Reds are worth $2 a barrel. The King variety is the most sought for by commission men. Greenings are selling for $1.75 a barrel. As a general thing red apples find the most ready sale.

The wheat market was firm and prices advanced 3-4 cents, but the local price remains at 88 cents.

The corn market grows stronger with good inquiries for old at 58 cents.

Oats are a little more active and the supply is somewhat reduced, owing to the indisposition of producers to sell at the present low price. The market remains at 28 cents.

The influence in rye are favorable, although the local market has not yet advanced. Demands from abroad continue to increase and foreign prices have advanced 3 cents. The local price 75 cents.

The lower grade or feed barley is easier, but there is the best demand for choice malting. The offerings of the latter are small and sell readily at $1.10 a cwt.

Green meats are in moderate request and offerings light. Heavy pork has not yet been placed on the market. Light pork is worth 5 cents.

The demand for beef is light and prices steady at 4-1/2 to 7 cents for good native steers.

Butter is very firm at 23 cents for good dairy.

Fresh eggs are in good demand at from 20 to 22 cents a dozen.

Sweet corn is offered in small lots at 10 cents a gallon by the barrel.

Loose hay on wagons was selling yesterday at $15 a ton for timothy and $12 to $13 for clover with a fair demand.

Potatoes were sold by the wagon yesterday for 7 and 8 cents a pound. Spring chickens were worth 10 cents a pound for dressed.

Honey is scarce in the market and the price has advanced to 18 cents at wholesale.

NEWS FROM THE RAILWAYS.

A. W. Street, of Chicago, manager of the Hoosier Tunnel Line, was in the city yesterday.

Wm. Owen, of Chicago, traveling passenger agent of the C. & A., was in the city yesterday.

D. K. Sage, of Chicago, traveling freight agent for the Rock Island system, made the local railroad offices a visit yesterday morning.

"I have voted the democratic ticket all my life," said Capt. May at the union depot yesterday, "but I'm going to vote for Belknap next week. Fifteen years ago Mr. Belknap did me a service from pure kindness, without any hope of ever having it returned, and the least way in which I can testify my appreciation of it, is to help elect him."

THEY NESTED TOGETHER.

The Morton House was turned into a seething political "joint" yesterday. Politicians of all parties and all degrees of political experience, wandered about, framing methods to secretly twist the tail of the democratic tiger or to dash the keystone from the arch of republican protectionism and let the whole structure collapse with "a dull sickening thud."

The tall Spindard-like form of Geo. McBride stood up by the cigar stand, a useful independence, while the slender physique of Capt. Allen flitted nervously about the lobby. Junius P. Bent was there from the University City, bearing the odor of Sarsaparilla, four ounce gloves and other appointments of higher education. Mark S. Brewer crawled down in an easy chair until he rested on his shoulder blades and puffed a Henry Clay, smoking but looking wise.

The Pastoriah Mikado of the Valley City democracy wandered anxiously about as if he felt "like some bewitched dove whom Mockery had thrown and crowned." S. S. Oida, of Lansing, and Wright Giddings, of Cadillac, sat on one of the sofas and conversed in the quietest of disputable democracy. Mark Stevens was there with his family bearing of an Indian child and the same Indian's new fur spoils. Perry Powers, seated in the chair's question corner, was a scene with no inebriated witness about "two columns apart, to reach the mother" and Cook, of the Hastings House, solemnly inquired if word was received in regard to a bill. His cousin, the Duke of Kent, sitting about, he with disunion the backbone of the independence house. The highly concentrated face of Andy Fyle was occasionally seen through the smoke of countless cigars. W. R. Bates sat by himself "and thought and thought," and everybody voted that the coming contest would be like the man's fight with the bear, "the gol damnest scrap you ever seed."

FUNNY THINGS IN DETROIT.

W. L. Davenport, ex-city editor of the Detroit Journal, was attending the meeting of the Republican League yesterday. "We're having a mighty interesting show down in Detroit," he said. "There's Thompson, whom Dickenson offered the collectorship of Detroit, and who is thoroughly in line with Cleveland's policy, being repudiated by the Free Press, the organ of Cleveland democracy, and by Don M. Dickenson, the personal friend of Cleveland. Then there's Miner, who has denounced Cleveland and who has been denounced by the Free Press in three columns, being actively supported by the Free Press and by Don M. Dickenson. We have some funny things in Detroit."

BICYCLERS' CLUB HOME.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Grand Rapids Bicycle Club will be held in its new quarters at the Hartman docks, the large dance hall formerly occupied by the dance stage and band. The club's membership has been greatly increased within the last few months and it is now in a prosperous condition. A series of parties will be given in the new quarters during the winter, the first of which will be held November 16. Other entertainments of social nature will be given and the hall will be fitted up with gymnastic equipments. Two base ball teams will be organized and a series of games will be arranged for the championship. The winning club will challenge the Owashtungo champions at the end of the season.

HOLLIES DEDICATION.

Largely through the beneficence of the business men and other citizens of Grand Rapids, the new chapel of the Primitive Holiness Mission, at the corner of Curtis-st. and Ashland-ave., is finished and ready for dedication. Services will be held there this evening and Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. Providing a sufficient sum of money is raised at these meetings to clear the church of debt, the edifice will be dedicated Sunday afternoon. The Rev. T. K. Doty, of Cleveland, editor of the Christian Harvester, will officiate. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Largely Attended Social.

The entertainment and social given at the Plainfield-ave. church last evening was largely attended and heartily enjoyed by those who were present. A musical and literary program was rendered and refreshments were served. The Methodist clergy of the city and the presiding elders were present, and each one gave a short address before the gathering.

Good Republican Meetings.

"I have had a meeting at Cooper'sville that would be a credit to any campaign," said Mark S. Brewer at the Morton late last night. "They said I had half as many again as Springer had when he spoke there a few days ago."

Capt. Allen also reported one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the year at Holland last night.

Relief Corps Entertainment.

The Woman's Relief Corps No. 41 gave a complimentary entertainment last evening in their hall, No. 55 West Bridge-st. An appreciative audience of fair proportions listened to a program of 20 numbers rendered in an acceptable manner. DuPont president, Mrs. Sarah L. Brown, of Kansas, was present.

Sued a Brick Company.

Charles Mears, of Chicago, began suit in the United States circuit court yesterday against the Middlesex Brick & Tile company. The suit grows out of a misunderstanding about something over $100,000.

THEY LOVE THEIR FRIEND.

Old Soldiers Grateful to Their Earnest Champion.

Editor Telegram-Herald:

In common with the mass of my comrade soldiers, heretofore, the nomination of the Hon. C. E. Belknap gives me unfeigned pleasure. Every old soldier with whom I have talked about this matter, feels thankful for the honor thus conferred upon Capt. Belknap. Last evening I talked with an old comrade who is on the pension list, and though an avowed democrat, he spoke most respectfully of Mr. Belknap and declared that he was "going to vote for Belknap, who helped me and many other old soldiers to get pensions."

While Mr. Belknap was in congress, I was engaged in extensive correspondence for ex-soldiers who were protesting claims against "Uncle Sam," and I always found our Comrade B. ever ready to do everything in his power to aid the "vets." In one of my letters I expressed regret for the trouble to which we put him in looking up the claims of ex-soldiers, to which Mr. Belknap promptly replied: "Send along everything of this kind as it is a pleasure to me to do everything in my power to further the interests of worthy soldiers."

No ex-soldier of heretofore applied for the Fennville postoffice, which has been ably managed by Mr. Wm. Whitbeck—a staunch republican and true friend of soldiers, so that we have no soldier "sore heads" in these parts. I am reliably informed that all republicans in western Allegan will vote solidly for Belknap, the regular nominee of their party. It is possible that some man who would make greater "blunder" than Belknap might have been nominated, but we feel confident that Comrade B. will in the future, as in the past, favor every measure to advance the true interest of old soldiers and of the glorious cause.

Farmers Insult the Flag.

Loup City, Neb., Oct. 30.—The alliance lodges of the state held a political meeting here Thursday. An incident of the occasion so insulted the Union veterans of the city that thousands will now desert their ranks. The American flag was hoisted stars down by R. Taylor, the local alliance store-keeper. The citizens took this as an insult to the flag and sent a committee of two to have it either taken down or put up right, giving him an hour to change it. Three-quarters of an hour passed when the son of an old soldier climbed the ladder and adjusted it.

Marriage Licenses.
The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued since last published, with the names residences (when outside the city) and ages of the parties:

Wm. G. Gates, Sparta, Mich., 22—18. Frank Reno Brown, Elm M. Young, 22—25.

GRATIFYING TO ALL.
The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant, liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

The Best Authorities.
Such as Dr. Dio Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which permanently cures catarrh.

Obituary.
On Monday Oct. 26 J. M. Butler, an old settler and prominent citizen of Englishville, died of consumption after a long illness.

He seemed to anticipate his coming end and made all necessary arrangements for his funeral.

He was dearly beloved by all who knew him, a kind and loving husband and father.

The G. A. R. post of Sparta attended in a body.

Good deal of horse talk breaking and news this fall—the fraction of a second in speed over the fastest time heretofore made by a trotter creates attention and excitement that are simply wonderful to the thoughtful. Of course this split second is not of any practical value in the economy of our affairs—and although a pleasure, or say, stimulating excitement, it doesn't figure worth a cent in any manner from the standpoint of locomotion of goods and things.

The wild pleasure with which the lowering of the record is received is, however, indicative of the trend of every-day affairs—push, haste—calculation of labor and events reduced to seconds. In fact distance is not measured by miles so much as when you and I went to school. Not in by time—by hours and minutes—for instance, we say that it's five hours and twenty-five minutes from Grand Rapids to Chicago; or it's three hours and fifty minutes between Detroit and this city. And what a contrast this with the time it took Mr. Gilbert on his first trip here from Detroit—six days (about 124 hours). Every minute saved or utilized, that otherwise might be called lost or wasted is practically that much increase in length of life. Therefore save time is the legend.

Now—We might here say that in your calculations you may start with Chicago & West Michigan R'y and put that down as always in time.

Geo. DeHaven, Gen'l Pass'r Agt. P. S.—Should add that the time quoted above is via the C. & W. M. to Chicago, and D. & N. to Detroit.

SOFTENING OF BRAIN.

Take the Symptoms in Time.

The above represents an almost incurable case of softening of the brain. This terrible disease can be cured, however, by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura. It is a simple, safe, and reliable remedy, and is the only one of its kind in the world. A person grows nervous, weak, irritable, and loses appetite, confused mind, vision, loss of memory, dull feeling, head-dizziness, despondency, strange sensations, feeling of anxiety of apprehension, cold feet and legs, loss of interest in things. You must not neglect these symptoms a moment, but use the great brain and nerve restorative Dr. Greene's Nervura at once. This wonderful nerve strengthener will surely cure it taken in time. Use it now if you have the slightest of the above feelings. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists sell it $1.00.

"I employed 23 doctors for my wife. Many pronounced her incurable, some advised placing her in an asylum, while others did her no good. She had poor blood, was weak, nervous, dissipated and half crazy. She had female weakness and her kidneys were very bad. Dr. Greene's Nervura has completely cured her. She thanks God that I bought Dr. Greene's Nervura."

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th st., New York, can be consulted free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about your case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.
